

The tip of the spit is eroding fastest as the bay captures the erosion. The middle of the bay has been successfully protected with the double line of concrete barrels, a simple but effective measure.

If the spit is allowed to erode the surge will be deflected into the creek and will overwhelm the North of the yard and spill onto the road. The volume of water in the